1 Read about Anna's work. Then answer the questions.

Hello, I'm Anna and I work for a dog rescue group. I love my job, but it sometimes makes me very sad. Every year, we find thousands of unwanted dogs on the streets. People leave them on motorways, in public toilets, in rubbish bins, or outside shops and restaurants. The group finds the most dogs around Easter time. People buy puppies for Christmas presents. The puppy grows. It is difficult to look after. It chews the rugs and it runs round the house breaking things. Dogs need a lot of space and they need a lot of exercise. They are also expensive. It costs around £10,000 to keep a dog for its lifetime. Think with your head and not your heart when you buy a puppy.

- a Who does Anna work for?
- b Where do people often leave dogs?
.....
- c When does the dog rescue group find the most abandoned dogs?
.....
- d Why do people abandon dogs?
.....
- e How much does it cost to keep a dog?

2 Read the title of the book. Look through the pictures in the book. Who is Socks? Why is he called Socks? Discuss with a partner.

A DIFFERENT LIFE

Do you like sad stories? Good, because this is a sad story. Oh, some of you don't like sad stories. That's OK. This is also a happy story. The beginning is sad; but the ending is happy.

This is a story about a girl called Penny Cooper. That is Penny in the picture. She leaves school and walks down the road. She gets on a bus and goes along a busy road. She gets off the bus and goes inside a big building. Inside the building are apartments. She goes into one of the apartments. It has three rooms. Penny walks round the apartment. The apartment is empty. It is January and the apartment is cold. Penny is on her own. She is often on her own. She's on her own at school and she's on her own at home. Penny often feels lonely.

Penny lives in this apartment with her mother and her father. But her father is out. He is looking for work. Penny's mother is out, too. She is working in a café. Penny eats some bread and jam and drinks some water. Then she goes out again. There is a park near the apartments. Penny likes the park. There are people in the park and dogs. Penny likes dogs.

GLOSSARY

- busy: (here) with traffic
- empty: with nobody inside
- lonely: unhappy because she has no friends
- looking for: in search of
- on her own: alone; without other people
- out: not in the house

Now look. This is Penny again. But this is Penny six months ago. It is July. Penny lives in a small village. The village is beside a lake, and there are hills and woods. Penny is with her friends. They run along a path beside the lake. There are houses beside the lake. One house is white; it has a big garden. There is a dog playing in the garden. Penny lives in the white house, and the dog is waiting for her. The dog's name is Holly.

Penny and her friends often play with Holly. Sometimes, they throw sticks into the lake, and Holly brings them back. Then she makes everyone wet. Penny and her friends laugh at Holly.
