

The Nile Chorus

from Aida

Lyric by Stuart Smith

Giuseppe Verdi
arranged by Gwyn Arch

Maestoso ♩ = c.96 mf

Tenors mf
For the Nile, our might-y flow-ing riv - er, men of

Basses mf
For the Nile, our might-y flow-ing riv - er, men of

Piano f mf

5

hon - our now must take a stand. Pha-roah's power our free-dom will de - liv - er, van - quish - ing

hon - our now must take a stand. Pha-roah's power our free-dom will de - liv - er, van - quish - ing

9

all who would drive us from our land.

all who would drive us from our land. God ab - ove us, mark how the low - ly rise to defend thy sac - red way. Help us save all that is ho - ly. Grant us

13

17

March-ing now the en-em-y be-fore us, Ev -'ry vic - tor -y here to - day. March-ing now the en-em-y be-fore us, Ev -'ry

21

he - ro sworn to do his part. Sing al - oud the rous - ing bat - tle cho - rus, for - ward to he - ro sworn to do his part. Sing al - oud the rous - ing bat - tle cho - rus, for - ward to 25

dan - ger with val - our in our heart. With the flag of vic - tor - y fly - ing, guid - ing us dan - ger with val - our in our heart.

29

through the bit - ter fight, death and fail - ure we are de - fy - ing, Glo - ry

The Nile Chorus

from Aida

Lyric by Stuart Smith

Giuseppe Verdi
arranged by Gwyn Arch

Maestoso ♩ = c.96 mf

Tenors

Basses

For the Nile, our might-y flow-ing riv-er, men of

For the Nile, our might-y flow-ing riv-er, men of

5

hon - our now must take a stand. Pha-roah's power our free-dom will de - liv - er, van - quish - ing

hon - our now must take a stand. Pha-roah's power our free-dom will de - liv - er, van - quish - ing

9

all who would drive us from our land.

all who would drive us from our land. God ab - ove us, mark how the low - ly rise to defend thy sac - red way. Help us save all that is ho - ly. Grant us

13