

Revival

There's gonna be a revival in this land. From the East to the West, to the North, down to the South. There's gonna be a revival in this land.

First it starts as a whisper in the streets down town. But whispers steadily grow till they burst out in this song: There's gonna be a revival in this land.

Hear it ev'rywhere now, whispers never stop. You hear them in the morning all day and all night. There's gonna be a revival in this land.

When you hear that whisper, listen carefully. Because it will be announcing: The day has come now to be free. There's gonna be a revival in this land.

In diesem Land wird es eine Erneuerung geben. Von Osten bis zum Westen, bis in den Norden und hinunter ins Süden. In diesem Land wird es eine Erneuerung geben.

Zunächst beginnt es als ein Geflüster in den Straßen der Stadt an. Aber dieses Flüstern wird steigern und dieses Lied hervorbringen. In diesem Land wird es eine Erneuerung geben.

Hörst du nun überall, das Flüstern hört nie auf. Es ist am Morgen und ganzen Tag, die ganze Nacht. In diesem Land wird es eine Erneuerung geben.

Wenn ihr das Geflüster hört, hört genau zu. Weil es verkündet wird: Der Tag ist nun gekommen, an dem wir frei werden. In diesem Land wird es eine Erneuerung geben.

Preface

This call for Revival is closely linked with the social and political situation of the people of Africa today. Even though apartheid officially came to an end, this song continues to express the hope for coexistence of all nations of the population with equal rights in one country.

The whispered introduction gradually intensifies, until a soloist or a small group sings the short cry Whisper growing. It is also possible to omit the spoken introduction (bars 1–20) and begin immediately with the chorus (bar 21).

Vorwort

Dieser Ruf nach einem Revival ist eng verknüpft mit der sozialen und politischen Situation der Menschen in Afrika heute. Auch nach dem offiziellen Ende der Apartheid drückt dieser Song die Hoffnung nach einem gleichberechtigten Miteinander aller Bevölkerungsgruppen aus.

Die geflüsterte Einleitung steigert sich allmählich, bis ein Solist oder eine Sologruppe den kurzen Ruf Whisper growing vorträgt. Es ist auch möglich, die gesprochene Einleitung (Takte 1–20) wegzulassen und direkt mit dem Refrain (Takt 21) zu beginnen.
