Snowflakes in Summer

1. When love is wint'ry cold, and summerdays are feeling icy cold, when freezing winds are rushing marching by, and thousand clouds, paint dark, so dark the sky, we see: Snowflakes in summer, snowflakes in summer, innocent white snowflakes in summer.

2. A snowflake on the clammy day, to cover all that troubled lovers say, to hide away their blinded eyes, concealing all, like mist in summer skies, we see: Snowflakes in summer, snowflakes in summer, innocent white snowflakes in summer.

innocent white snowflakes, dancing in white, dancing snowflakes in summer.

3. Blankets love for but a while, then sun returns a loving warming smile, and winter knocks at sunny hearts in vain, and nightingales return, return again, we see: Snowflakes in summer, snowflakes in summer, innocent white snowflakes in summer, no, no more!

Never, no more snowflakes, never, no more snowflakes, never, no more snowflakes in summer.
