2 Verbo have e possesso

2A Verbo have (got) – present simple

Il verbo have avere al presente ha due voci: have e has. Può essere usato in forma estesa (full form) o contratta (short form). Puoi vedere le due forme nella prima e nella seconda colonna delle tabelle qui sotto. Specialmente nell'inglese britannico have è spesso accompagnato dal rafforzativo got, soprattutto nella lingua orale e in contesti non molto formali.

Forma affermativa
I have got	I've got	La forma contratta è la più comune nella lingua informale, sia orale che scritta.
You have got	You've got
He has got	He's got	I've got a new car. Ho un'auto nuova.
She has got	She's got	We've got a dog. Abbiamo un cane.
It has got	It's got	La forma contratta è usata anche quando il soggetto è un nome singolare.
We have got	We've got	Tricia's got curly hair. Tricia ha i capelli ricci.
You have got	You've got	The flat's got two balconies. L'appartamento ha due balconi.
They have got	They've got

A La esse apostrofa (s) può essere la forma contratta di is oppure has. Osserva gli esempi:
 Julie's a professional tennis player. (= Julie is...) Julie è una tennista professionista.
 Julie's got an expensive racket. (= Julie has got...) Julie ha una racchetta costosa.
 La esse apostrofa è anche usata per il caso possessivo o genitivo sassone (vedi Sezione 2E).
 Julie's racket is very expensive. La racchetta di Julie è molto costosa.

Forma negativa
I have not got	I haven't got	La forma contratta è la più comune anche alla forma negativa.
You have not got	You haven't got	She hasn't got a bicycle. Lei non ha la bicicletta.
He has not got	He hasn't got	My parents haven't got a large flat. I miei genitori non hanno un appartamento grande.
She has not got	She hasn't got	Per dare maggiore enfasi alla negazione si può usare la forma contratta affermativa + not .
It has not got	It hasn't got	I've not got a dog! I've got a cat! Io non ho un cane! Ho un gatto!
We have not got	We haven't got
You have not got	You haven't got
They have not got	They haven't got

1 Completa le frasi con il verbo have got affermativo. Usa le forme contratte quando è possibile.

- Mr Powell a son and a daughter.
- Our parents an old car.
- I a brand new laptop.
- My cousins a cottage in the mountains.
- My dad a barbecue in the garden.
- His grandmother a precious diamond ring.
- My aunt and my uncle a sailing boat.
- My brother and I dark hair.
- Karen a shoe shop in the town centre.
- Our classroom three big windows.

24

3 Completa le frasi con la forma affermativa (+) o negativa (-) del verbo have got.

Forma interrogativa	Forma interrogativo-negativa	Risposte brevi
Have I got...?	Have I not got...?	Yes, you have. No, you haven't.
Have you got...?	Have you not got...?	Yes, I have. No, I haven't.
Has he got...?	Hasn't he got...?	Yes, he has. No, he hasn't.

Have you got...?	Have you not got...?	Yes, we have. No, we haven't.

Nelle domande di tipo Yes / No il verbo precede il soggetto (nome o pronome).

Has Mika got a sister?
 Haven't you got a skate?

A queste domande si risponde con Yes o No. Come puoi osservare, nella forma contratta, mentre has e have sono contratti, hasn't e haven't non lo sono.

Nelle Wh- questions la persona singolare è spesso contratta. What's he got in his bag?

Questions tags

Come creare liste di studenti

Su HELBLING e-zone, l'insegnante ha la possibilità di creare account per i propri studenti attraverso la funzionalità STUDENT LISTS.

Nota che questo non è obbligatorio: è possibile anche che gli studenti creino da soli il proprio account.

Per creare account per i tuoi studenti, vai su STUDENT LISTS, fai click su Add student list, scegli un nome e infine seleziona Add student list.

The screenshot displays the HELBLING eZONE web interface. At the top, the navigation menu includes 'HOME', 'COURSES', 'STUDENT LISTS', 'MATERIALS', 'MESSAGES', and 'NEWS'. The 'STUDENT LISTS' menu item is circled in yellow. Below the navigation, the page title is 'Student lists'. A modal window titled 'Add student list' is open, featuring a text input field with the value 'Alumni Classe 2A' and a label 'List name: *'. At the bottom of the modal, there are two buttons: 'Cancel' and 'Add student list', with the latter being circled in yellow. The background content is partially obscured by the modal.

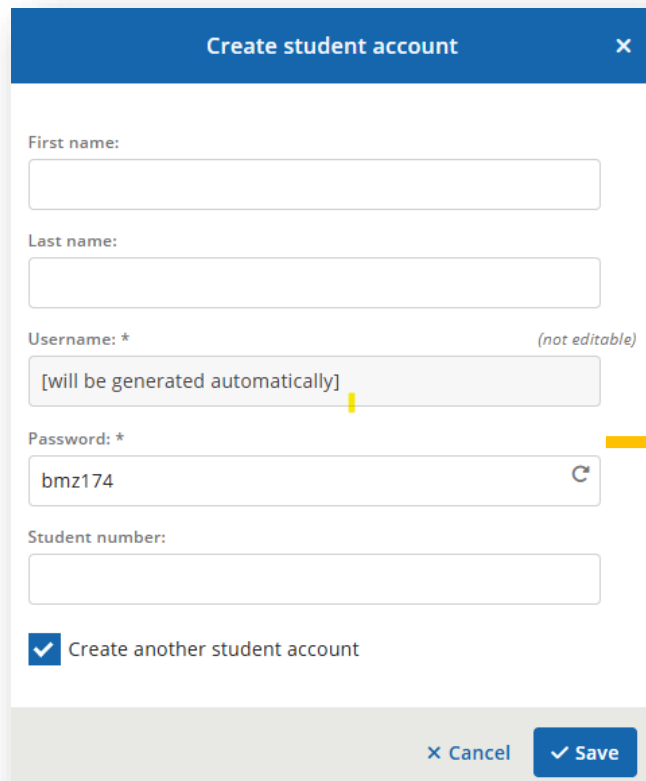

Una volta creata la tua STUDENT LIST, puoi aggiungere gli studenti:

A single course card is shown, with a blue header containing the text 'ID: NDSS-D4WP', 'Classe 2A', and 'English'. This card is circled in yellow. Below the header, it states 'No activities'. Underneath the course card is a 'Team teaching' section with the instruction 'Enter a course ID to join the course as a team teacher.' It includes a text input field labeled 'Course ID (XXXX-XXXX):' and a blue 'Join' button with a checkmark icon.

Nota che al corso viene assegnato automaticamente un ID (ad esempio, 1234-ABCD).
L'ID del corso consente ai tuoi studenti di richiedere di partecipare al corso.

Ora invita o aggiungi gli studenti al corso:
se tu o i tuoi colleghi avete già creato una STUDENT LIST, clicca su Add students from student list.
In alternativa, clicca su Invite students.

Cliccando su Invite students, puoi copiare l'ID del corso per condividerlo direttamente con i tuoi studenti in modo che possano richiedere di partecipare. Se scegli Print invitations puoi visualizzare le istruzioni dettagliate e/o stampare gli inviti al corso per i tuoi studenti.

Nota che se selezioni, nelle preferenze del corso, Give students direct access to this course gli studenti avranno accesso automaticamente non appena inviata la richiesta di partecipazione. Altrimenti, dovrai accettare le loro richieste individualmente.
